

MCNAIR INTERNATIONAL HOSTS ANNUAL LEGAL REVIEW OF 2022

On 18 January 2023, McNair International hosted its “Annual Legal Review of 2022”.

The event, chaired by Lord Mance, former Deputy President of the UK Supreme Court, considered key developments in the field of international dispute resolution. Khawar Qureshi KC, Head of McNair International, delivered a presentation on recent court decisions under the 1996 Arbitration Act, latest investment treaty awards and public international law questions brought before the English courts.

Following the presentation, a panel discussion took place involving experienced international practitioners, including Alistair Feeney (Partner, Holman Fenwick Willan), Daniel Wilmot (Partner, Stewarts), Dorine Farah (Partner, Baker Botts), Evgeniya Rubinina (Partner, Enyo Law LLP), Iain Mackie (Partner, Macfarlanes) and Robert Volterra (Partner, Volterra Fietta). The panel provided thoughtful and insightful views on a wide range of issues, including the impact of sanctions on litigation and arbitration, whether “double hatting” should be prohibited for counsels who also sit as arbitrators, whether ICSID has gone far enough to address cost/delay issues and the implications of the recent UK Supreme Court decision in Basfar v Wong.

For those unable to attend, we have made available both the PowerPoint slides used in Khawar Qureshi KC’s presentation as well as a recording of the full discussion.
